“ From the moment our Trip Director, Chris, introduced himself, he exuded an air of calmness, good humour and inclusion that brought the whole group together. Chris is definitely a thinker and people person. His appreciation for what his country and people can offer to outsiders is infectious and we came away having experienced so much more than just two weeks walking the tracks of New Zealand. ”

Glacier Boat Tour, Aoraki / Mt Cook National Park.

As you helicopter high over the Hollyford Valley to your remote lodge for the night, we know you'll share our feeling of awe at being deep in the wilderness, but with all the comforts of an all-star lodge. You'll get to walk on several of New Zealand's Great Walks (more than many local Kiwis have done themselves), see towering glaciers up close and meet rare and wonderful birds and wildlife, like the cheeky weka and friendly fantails, in two wonderful weeks.

5 Reasons to Book the World Heritage Walking Tour

1) Your Trip Director

Far from being a normal, every-day tour guide, your Trip Director is a most capable guide with years of experience exceeding expectations, passionate about sharing their heritage with you.

2) To develop a deeper knowledge of New Zealand

You'll be visited throughout your trip by a variety of guest speakers, including passionate local experts, ornithologists, naturalists, astrologists and local Māori.

3) To indulge in exclusive experiences

Not many people can boast that they've slept in a remote lodge only accessible by air or boat. Or that they've set foot in six National Parks and three Great Walks. These exclusive experiences and our educational guest speakers continue to make this our most immersive trip.

4) To travel at your own pace

So many things today are rushed as we try and do it all. With New Zealand Trails, you'll have the opportunity to walk at your own pace, take in the views and slow down (or speed up!) whenever you like.

5) To treat yourself to a daily dose of decadence

Each night, you'll dine at our favourite local restaurants, taste our world-renowned New Zealand wines and stay in New Zealand's very best lodgings.
